

Jordan Bache - Biography

Jordan Bache is a professional dancer and teacher based in Toronto, ON. She has recently completed her professional training at The Ailey School, graduating with a Certificate in Dance with Honours. While in New York, Jordan was also a member of The Ailey Student Performance Group (ASPG), performing Alvin Ailey repertory, as well as new choreography, throughout New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut. She was privileged to work with master teachers and choreographers including Darrell Grand Moultrie, Christine Dakin, and Jacquelyn Buglisi, to name a few.

Upon returning to Toronto, Jordan has continued to train, teach, choreograph, and perform. She recently danced in “Journey with the Wind” for Ismailova Theatre of Dance, “Cabaret” by Mission Vision Purpose, and “Let The Elephants Dance” with Michelle Crossman & Lianne Tammi. She can also be seen dancing in videos for Buglisi Dance Theatre, Dance : Corps Company, and The Ailey School.

Jordan’s training started with Cecchetti ballet, and then expanded to contemporary, Graham-based modern, Horton, jazz, acro, character dance, musical theatre, and jazz funk. Throughout her training, she continued to push her versatility by attending intensives and workshops at Ballet Jorgen Canada, The School of Toronto Dance Theatre, and Canada’s National Ballet School. Jordan hopes to uplift and inspire people through dance, by sharing her passion with audience members and her students.
